

Campustown Mural Project

Ames Cart has been commissioned by the Campustown Student Association

(CSA) to design and coordinate the painting of a 80x12' community-driven mural. The mural to be painted will promote the diverse, celebratory nature of Campustown community.

Ames Cart will be collecting submissions

to be considered for incorporation in the mural through March 1st. All submissions incorporated in the final mural design will be included in the exhibit celebrating the completion of the Campustown Mural Project.

The mural's theme

will provide a warm welcome to the many individuals who pass through Campustown every year—honoring the community's connection to art and one another.

The mural will be designed and painted by members of our community

— including Ames Cart Members, Campustown residents and businesses, students, and Ames community volunteers.

Submit an Idea for the Mural

All community members can contribute their ideas about what this mural should look like and represent. From poetry to scaled drawings, we are accepting it all.

Be part of the Core Mural Crew

We are looking for 3-5 experienced/inexperienced youth or adult community residents who possess artistic skills, who want to develop their natural skills as an artist and have an interest in being active with the development of murals within their neighborhoods. Core Mural Crew Members must be thorough in their commitment to the development and completion of the mural and adhere to the schedules of workshops, research sessions, and mural implementation and completion as set by the Lead Designer. Work will start immediately the Second Week of March 2010.

Mural Crew Volunteers

can be anyone from anywhere, with or without artistic ability or experience, who want to experience the process of mural development. Mural Crew Volunteers generally assist core mural crew members, the lead designer, mural coordinator with general painting, equipment set-up/tear/down and maintenance, coordination of dedication ceremony.

Monday March 1st is the deadline for submitting your input and ideas for the new mural which will be painted at the North facing T-Galaxy Wall (206 Welch Avenue, Ames, IA). March 1st is also the deadline for Core Mural Crew inquiries.
